

Survey on the image of vocational education and training 2020

Students in vocational education and training are satisfied.

Learning in the workplace prepares people well for a profession.

“ Studying is flexible, there is not as much pressure as in upper secondary school.

Studying is practical, versatile, useful and relaxed.

Students' expectations of their studies have been met.

Pupils in grade 9 receive information about studies

from friends

siblings and parents

the Internet and social media

from teachers

from student counsellors

Of grade 9 pupils

10 %

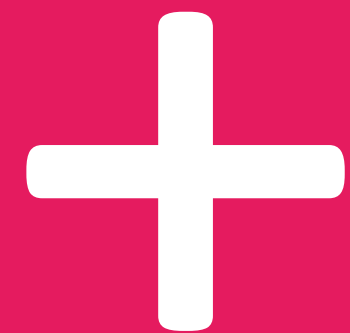

and

61 %

have a very high appreciation of vocational education and training have a fairly high appreciation of it as an educational option.

Plusses and minuses of vocational education and training

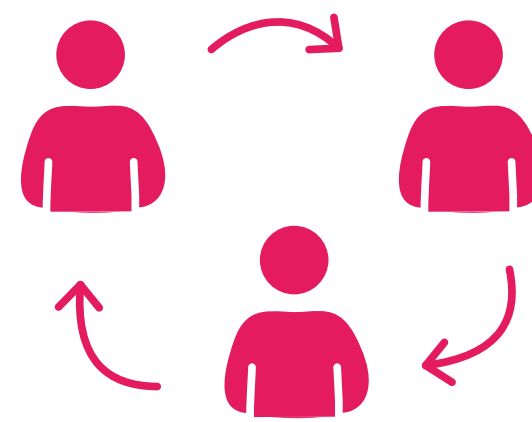

- gain professional competence
- secure employment
- can set up your own company
- opportunity for further studies
- valued by employers

- low social status
- finding one's own field difficult, too many opportunities
- images of professions outdated

What more is hoped for?

Collaboration with the world of work

Individual guidance

Contact teaching and tailored instruction

Information about further studies

Finland will not be able to cope just with master's degree holders.